

Life Membership for Life Saver

Bill Burnett Provincial Deputy Director of Ceremonies of Humber Lodge No.57 attended at the Guildhall, City of London, on Saturday the 4th of October, 2008 to receive Honorary Life Membership of the Royal Life Saving Society for 35yrs of continuous service to the Community.

This Award was for delivering Life Saving skills such as Infant life Support and Water safety courses to Schools and organisations in our Community.

Bill's Colleague, Bob Clarkson, who is a Past Master of Humber Lodge and current Z of Humber Chapter was presented with a Medal to recognise 50 yrs of unbroken service delivering Life Saving Skills to the Community.

The Awards were presented by the Lord Norrie, who stepped in at short notice and deputised for HRH, The Duke of Kent, who was called away to represent Her Majesty the Queen.
